Law Enforcement - Subsistence Allowance

Probation and Parole officers entitled to $8.00
per day subsistence allowance provided by Act 84-306.

Dear Mr. Williams:

The Attorney General has considered your request for an opinion concerning whether Probation and Parole Officers are entitled to receive the eight dollars per day subsistence allowance provided by Act No. 84-306. In 1977, these Probation and Parole Officers began receiving subsistence pay at the rate of $5.00 per day as provided by Section 36-21-2. This was based upon an opinion of this office dated June 30, 1977 issued to you.

Upon reviewing Act No. 84-306, it is the opinion of this office that that act in no way repeals the previous subsistence pay allowance. It merely raises this allowance from $5.00 to $8.00. Therefore, it is the opinion of this office that Probation and Parole Officers' entitlement to the subsistence pay allowance is unaffected by Act No. 84-306.

except to the extent that the amount is increased from $5.00 to $8.00.

Sincerely yours,

CHARLES A. GRADDICK
ATTORNEY GENERAL
